Blood Bank at Legion Wednesday, Sept. 17

Next Wednesday, from 12 Noon till 6 P.M., there will be a Red Cross Blood Bank at the American Legion Hall so, please, all you wonderful Blood Donors, mark your calendars now and arrange to come!

As usual, the Crawford County Transportation Service or Dial-A-Ride if that is easier to remember will pick you up and take you to the Legion and back home again if you come to give a pint. Just call 348-5488, and the ride is on them!

Although workers are being called back to automotive plants in Michigan, blood collections are still far below normal and the need for fresh blood continues to be in a critical stage.

The Petokey Red Cross Regional Blood Sub-Center which serves our Mercy Hospital has asked the Chapter to get 120 Donors if humanly possible our share of Blood needs for the next eight weeks. If we can do it, there should be no need to delay any elective surgery because of lack of blood in this area.

Please, come to the Legion Wednesday, September 17th, and give a pint of your precious blood! The gift that only YOU can make! Thanks!

MUCC Join Oil People in Pigeon River Drilling Site

by Don Gels

Gaylord—Oil company officials, a legislative aide and the Michigan United Conservation Clubs executive director joined together in a press conference in Gaylord last week to extol the virtues of drilling for oil in the Pigeon River Country State Forest.

In what appears to be a turn-about by the MUCC from their normal stands, executive Tom Washington told the assembled media representatives that Senate Bill 1119, which provides for review of oil exploration and drilling on all state land, is good for the state economy.

Washington told the press that MUCC is convinced drilling in the PRC would cause no damage to the elk herd or to coyote, bear or bobcat populations.

During the meeting members of the Pigeon River Country Association expressed their continued doubts that the forest could in any way benefit from the proposed drilling operation. Washington reluctantly listened to the opposing testimony because he told the citizens that the conference was called mainly to give the press the facts of the proposed bill.

Although it is said that the senate bill would effectively nullify Michigan's Environmental Protection Act, Washington told the group that it merely supplements the act. He noted that if the EPA were taken literally not one shovelful of dirt could be turned.

Washington said that there is a precedent for an enabling bill such as SB 1119 and gave the Wetlands Bill as an example. He pointed out that the bill provided guidelines for what land could be filled and what could not. He noted that under that legislation, a road could be constructed or a bridge built through a wetland but a shopping center could not be located in such an area.

Some skeptical members of the media showed concern about the forest after such a bill is passed. They asked about the handling of brine after it is used in the oil process. They noted that area water wells are presently being contaminated and the brine is being dumped in locations thought to be hazardous to the environment.

Washington could offer no assurances that the future would bring any guaranteed protection but said present laws, if enforced by the Department of Natural Resources could provide adequate safeguards.

Washington was asked if the right to drill in the southern third of the forest would be a "foot in the door" for opening up the entire forest. He replied that the remainder of the land is under a 25 year no-drill lease and there is still 20 years to run on that lease. He asked the question, who can tell what will happen after the lease runs out.

When asked the question of whether the individual members of MUCC had been polled about their support for the bill, Washington said that they had not been because the organization operated under a representative form of government. He noted that the only club in the north country voicing opposition to the bill is the Northland Sportsmen's Club of Gaylord.

During the session, a video tape was narrated by retired TV outdoor show star Mort Neff who extolled the virtues of drilling in the area. He and Harry Becker, local oil company official, took the audience on a visual trip through a variety of oil company developments. They emphasized the care that is taken in keeping the land as close as possible to the natural surroundings. The tape was one produced by the oil interests and featured their Lansing Attorney Tony Smith.

Dial-A-Ride Survey Underway

Crawford County Public Transit (Dial-a-Ride) is in the process of conducting a consolidation/coordination survey in Crawford County.

According to CCPT officials, it is aimed at identifying duplication of effort by transportation agencies in the area with an eye toward making the best possible use of public tax dollars for the citizens of Crawford County.

CCPT will be contacting citizens in the area, developing information on travel procedures and methods and tabulating the results for use in developing more efficient Dial-a-Ride transit plans.

CCPT officials hope to find the answer to many questions, particularly regarding duplication of travel in the county. The Michigan Department of Transportation has provided the following example of a situation the survey is designed to identify: One household includes a student riding the school bus, a foster grandparent using Dial-a-Ride, and a handicapped resident using yet another transportation source. The question may be asked, "Is this duplication of tax dollar spending?" (This is from research provided by the Michigan Dept. of Transportation. See Survey on Page 2)

Hartland Proves "Heartless" Dump Vikes 43-20 in Opener

by Joe Schrader

The Viking gridiron squad got a taste of southern hospitality last Friday night during its season opener against the Hartland Eagles, both on and off the field.

The Eagles ran all over the Vikings on the field, 43-20, but Head Coach Bill Klingler, who arranged the contest at the eleventh hour last week, said the trip was good for the team nonetheless. "That score is no indication of how important that game was for us," the coach said afterward, "it took a whole half but the kids learned they could play ball against a good Class B school."

Hartland, boasting a beautiful campus and football facility and located some 25 miles south of Flint, invited the Vikes down for the all-expenses paid trip late last week when attempts to find a closer opponent bogged down in millage elections. But their "southern hospitality" turned to all business at the kickoff when the Eagles raced to a 16-0 lead before the game was three minutes old.

Hartland stretched the margin to 24-0 at the first quarter mark, tallied another TD a minute into the second quarter to lead 30-0 as Eagle running backs consistently found gaping holes in the Viking's defensive wall.

The Vikes struck for a quick TD at 8:10 of the second quarter when senior QB John Juntilla got the club rolling and moved the ball to the Hartland 35-yard line. On the first play from there, the senior rolled out and found split end Tracy Fagan open in the corner of the endzone for the Vike's first TD of this year's campaign. A 2-point conversion pass to Bill Roach clicked and the score was 30-8.

But the Eagles struck again before halftime after an interception and led at the breather, 36-8.

Whatever Klingler and assistant coaches Mike Branch and Don Ferguson discussed with the club in the locker room must have had some meaning though because the Vikes came out vastly improved and spunkier.

"We started to hit some people the second half," Klingler said, "the kids played with more desire, it was just better football." The Vikes forced three Hartland fumbles the

County Residents Angered Over AIS Home Plans

by Joe Schrader

Despite assurances that the developmentally disabled residents will provide no threat or harm to neighbors, a large group of concerned citizens attended an open meeting last Tuesday night to voice opposition to the placement of AIS Homes in Crawford County.

According to Anton P. Colasacco, Director of North Central Michigan Mental Health Services, four AIS (Alternative Intermediate Service) Homes are planned for various locations in the county.

The thrust of the public opposition centered not around the principle of AIS facilities, but rather the particular locations being considered for their installation.

The Tuesday meeting drew well over 50 concerned citizens who viewed a slide-type presentation about the home development, shown by Mike Rankin of the AIS staff.

Sights being considered include Clough's Highland Acres Subdivision, Sherwood Forest No. 2, Red Wing Terrace and Frederic.

AIS homes are being opened around the state to ease institutional congestion and to provide a more normal domestic life for patients who are unable to care for themselves. According to Colasacco, the homes will be of modern, residential design with barrier-free features, valued at from $85,000 to $120,000 apiece. Each will provide sound, supervised home and health care under a staff of approximately eight trained staff employees, with 24-hour "around the clock" coverage. Colasacco indicated that some of the residents, six to a facility, would be from the Grayling area while others would come from other regional locations and from around the state.

Most of the opposition to the sites appeared to come from homeowners in Clough's Sub. and Sherwood Forest. Residents expressed fear that property values would tumble in areas where the homes open up, and were not satisfied with Colasacco's assurances that the residents were harmless.

Several in attendance blasted the state, the Mental Health Board, and County Board of Commissioners for what they termed an underhanded approach to the selection of home sites. One vehement homeowner stalked out of the meeting in disgust, departing with a suggestion that homeowners in the affected areas immediately seek legal counsel.

What appears to anger residents most is the fact that apparently there is no legal method they can employ to block placement of the homes at the sites under consideration.

The 2-hour meeting concluded with Colasacco assuring the group that their opposition and the surveys they have gathered will be carefully weighed before any further action was taken.

It has been fascinating to learn of the lives and history of the many Seniors at the Center. It is a pity we can't find a way to record them all and put them in a book. It would be such interesting reading, because they all had such full lives.

Take Ingeborg Kristofferson Leslie for example.

She was born 82 years ago in Denmark, in the year 1898. When she was eight, a man by the name of Hanson was recruiting young vigorous people to come to Grayling to work in the logging camps and mills of his brother. Ingeborg's father, Theodore Kristofferson, brought his family to Grayling.

When Ingeborg was 17, right after graduation from Grayling High School, she went to Detroit with several other Grayling girls to get a job. Ingeborg lived with Ben Jerome and his family-yes, our Ben Jerome. At that time he was a General Motors executive; it was later that he became the Cadillac Dealer in Pontiac.

But less than a year after she came to Detroit she met Ted Leslie, a car tracer for Michigan Central Railroad at the time, and lightning struck them both. Believe it or not, they were married two weeks after they met. Ingeborg was 18, Ted was 32, and love at first sight it was, and it lasted 58 yrs. of a most happy marriage.

They had two sons-Don and Carl-both of whom live in Florida now and Ingeborg sees them regularly.

After a few years in Detroit they came to Grayling to operate a farm in Beaver Creek, which they did for over twenty years. There were no refrigerators those days and Camp Grayling had to have fresh produce daily to feed the Guards when they were in encampment. Soon the Leslies were selling all their produce to the Camp and were regular suppliers.

They also had a butter and egg route of steady customers in and around Grayling, but, See Lucky on Page 2

The proceeds from this event have been donated to the Easter Seal Fund, in the amount of over $500.00. Shown above left, Lora Gould, Volunteer Chairman for Crawford County Easter Seals received check from Hertha Laupmanis, Inn Keeper at Holiday Inn. Ms. Gould stated that money received is used to purchase wheelchairs, braces, crutches, etc., for people in Crawford County who are in need for such items.

portation developed from a similar survey in another county.

Similar examples of what appear, on the surface at least, to be duplication of travel effort, could be present here, and the results of the survey are tabulated, a more efficient transportation system here in the area will be developed.

The survey has been underway now for about two weeks and is expected to continue for about another month. Dial-a-Ride appreciates the cooperation shown by those residents contacted, along with the other transportation agencies in the area.

Further information will be made public as the survey progresses, and the continuing cooperation of residents will be appreciated. Long range plans are to provide a more cost-efficient transportation system for residents and taxpayers in the county.

Face Joburg Home Thursday GHS Girl's Cagers Topple Fairview, 67-37

by Joe Schrader

The Grayling High Girl's Basketball squad started out the season with a "bang" last Thursday night with a convincing, on-the-road victory over Fairview, 67-37. The JV team came home on a winning note as well, hammering out a hard-earned overtime win, 35-32.

GHS Head Coach Marilee Cheney is leading her team into a 19-game regular schedule with a home contest scheduled for this Thursday night against Johannesburg, tipoff time is 8:30 p.m. at the high school gym. The JV's will play in the preliminary. Michigan Huron Shores League play will start on September 23rd when the girls host the Boyne City Ramblers.

In last week's win against Fairview, Lisa Radebaugh led the way with 28 points with Jean Stevens hitting double digits with fourteen. Coach Cheney lauded Jane Baynham and Jill Headlee for their defensive efforts in the opening season victory.

Jean Bitner poured in 15 points to lead the JV win, and hauled down 12 rebounds to lead the junior squad to their close victory.

More on the GHS squads next week after a visit with Coach Cheney later this week.

Barbershop Music Expert To Be In Grayling Sept. 16th

A top expert in the barbershop brand of music, Dave Stevens, will be in the area next week to share his expertise.

Not only is Stevens exceptionally well qualified, he blends masterly entertainment in appearances he makes before chapters of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America.

One of the "music men" on the professional staff of the international organization, Stevens will be in Michigan for appearances at Grayling, Lansing, Kalamazoo and Grosse Pointe. Barbershoppers from Gladwin on the south, Sault Ste. Marie, Canada on the north, Traverse City on the west and Alpena on the east will be in his audience at the Grayling Chief Shoppe-nagons Motor Hotel at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 16.

On the following morning, Stevens will be a guest of Radio Stations WHGR and WJGS-fm on the program "Your Opinion, Please." He is being scheduled, also, for a taped interview to be screened by Channel 9, Cadillac.

As a music services assistant for the Society headquartered at Kenosha, WI, Stevens travels across the United States and Canada conducting seminars for local chapters, their music directors and quartets.

He directed the Berkeley, CA chorus that won the Society's International Championship in 1957, capping a period of musical work in the San Francisco Bay area. He has been a professional in commercial music, broadcasting and recording.

Stevens graduated in 1941 from DePauw University with a Bachelor in Music Education. He has been music instructor for the Chicago Campus Choral of Northwestern University, San Francisco Conservatory of Music and the Adult Education Division of the San Francisco Schools.

SCORING AERIAL—Grayling split end Tracy Fagan goes high in the air to haul in this TD aerial from QB Junttila. The action came late in the game and was the last of three scoring strikes by the Vike offense in a losing cause against Hartland. (Joe Schrader photo) second half and outscored the Eagles, 12-7 but the damage had been done before halftime.

Hartland tallied at the 8:39 mark of the 3rd quarter to up its lead to 43-8 before Grayling got rolling again.

With 1:31 remaining in the quarter, Junttila hit Terry Norman with a TD aerial but the 2-point attempt failed and it was 43-14. The Vikes closed out the scoring when Junttila hit Fagan in the corner of the endzone again with a 10-yarder late in the game.

TAGGING THE VIKES: The Vikings rolled up 411 total yards against Hartland's 371 but it was the Eagles who pulled off the big plays. Hartland scored four TD's from 72, 28, 55 and 24 yards away.

QB Junttila hit on 15 of 29 passing attempts and three TD's for 302 yards in the air. Vike runners gained 109 yards on the ground.

Fagan with two TD's and Norman with one made up the 5-member receiving corps for Grayling. Brian Yoder, Dan Lucksted and Bill Roach are the other receivers.

Klinger said Grayling's offensive line provided good protection for Junttila and credited Jack Money, Craig Collen, Steve Allen, Bob Heuther, Scott Dunckley, Jay Schrader and Tim Emerick for giving Junttila a chance to find receivers.

Craig Collen and Brad Trenary, defensive "Bandits", were leading tacklers for the Vikes on Friday. Klinger said the defensive unit was "shell shocked" by the Hartland offense and took the whole first half before learning to hit. "Monday we'll start to work on our defense," Klinger snapped, "most of our work is going to center around that problem but we'll be ready for Roscommon Friday night."

Klinger called the Hartland squad an "excellent Class B club" who play a tough downstate schedule including games with three Class A schools this year.

The Junior Vikes found things rough on Thursday here at home when they hosted West Branch Ogemaw Heights. The JV squad ended up on the short end of a 33-0 shellacking.

The Vikes hit the road for an encounter with arch-rival Roscommon this Friday night. The JV's host the Junior Bucks home at the high school field on Thursday with kickoff set for 6:30 p.m. The varsity game against Rosco is set for 7:30 p.m.

Only a handful of fans followed the club on its 175 mile trip to Hartland, a distance that may have had some effect on the Vike's performance. A big crowd is expected to be on hand for Friday's contest against Roscommon.

Smith argued that if the Supreme Court has the facts about the forest and lack of potential damage to the elk herd when they considered the case, they would not have ruled in favor of the environmentalists.

The argument that the potential 76 million barrels of oil in the forest did not seem to carry much weight with some members of the press especially when it was coupled with the idea of the amount of royalties that the state would receive. It was noted that the state takes the revenue from a resource located in the north country but does not return a fair share of benefits here.

The statement was made that the counties do not receive a penny of the proceeds.

Washington was asked if a head count of the senate indicated whether or not the bill would be passed. He replied that 29 out of 39 senators had co-sponsored the bill.

It would appear that the votes are sufficient to overturn the Supreme Court ruling to protect the forest and elk herd. The environmentalists will have a difficult battle again to overcome the weighty senate leanings if indeed they can get sufficient funds from public subscription to fight the oil company interests.

A reliable source has stated that the public relations firm that is handling the Washington statewide meetings for media representatives is being retained by the oil companies.

If you ask her, Ingeborg will modestly, but very proudly, acknowledge she was elected the 'Most Outstanding Senior Citizen for the year 1980' and that she really enjoys riding in the parades as the "Queen" and holding court at all the Senior recognition dinners and special balls.

She doesn't think she deserves it, but she is so pleased her friends selected her.

I knew Ingeborg both before and after Ted's demise, and I know how vitally important the Senior Citizens Center and her friends and associates there were to Ingeborg's readjustment to Ted's loss.

As Ingeborg says: "The Center is the 'center' of my life now. There is always something to do. There is opportunity to help other people. There is companionship and friendship, and understanding; but, most of all, you 'belong', you are 'needed'."

Yes, if YOU are lucky you will live to be a Senior, and, hopefully, the Senior Citizens Center will still be thriving to add joy and happiness and zest to your family living.

Grayling, Michigan—Thursday, Sept. 11, 1980

From Our Corner ...

Here we are back to our old Monday deadline and wondering why we couldn't think of something over the weekend to get this turkey out of the way...I don't know why we have to wait this close to deadline...we should know by now that no matter how we think we're ahead of the game on Saturday, Monday is always the most hectic day we have in the week...anyhow, here we are struggling again...

Two traumatic experiences enveloped Crawford County last week...one, the threat of County workers going out on strike this Monday, and the other the meeting pertaining to the state building three Adult Foster Care Family Homes in Crawford County.

Last week nine county office workers had voted to walk off their jobs this Monday in their continuing fight for a seven percent wage increase.

Two meetings were held, one Friday and the other on Saturday by the Board of Commissioners and union officials in an effort to avert the walk out...workers decided following the two meetings to hold off for a couple weeks in which it is hoped an agreement may be made to satisfy both the workers and county.

From our corner...we hope the strike can be averted which will benefit all...strikes hurt more than they help in the long run...

The announcement by the Michigan Department of Mental Health to build three alternative Intermediate Services Homes in Sherwood Forest No. 2 Subdivision, Red Wing Terrace Subdivision and Clough's Highland Acres Subdivision, has prompted residents of each of the above subdivisions to express their disapproval of the proposed plans...

For all those interested there will be a Public Hearing held on September 19th from 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. at the Grayling Holiday Inn, 1-75 Business Loop South to allow comment by interested persons on proposed administrative rules governing adult foster care family homes...

The Avalanche is carrying three separate articles in this week's edition pertaining to the building of the homes. On page one, Joe Schrader reports on the meeting held last week at the Mt. Hope Lutheran Church. There is an open letter concerning AIS home development in Crawford County from Anton P. Colasacco, M.A., Director of the North Central Michigan Mental Health Services in Cadillac. And the third, a Letter to the Editor from Alton T. Davis, Prosecuting Attorney who reports on the concerned citizens who are opposing the building of the homes in their subdivisions...

We've had the following in our possession now for a few weeks and just haven't had room for it...it is a piece Garnetta Findlay brought in and was written by Margaret Brandenburg, we do not know the magazine in which it appeared...we thought our readers may like to share it with us...

Will God Have Time For Me?

Mommie, will the angels take good care of me?
Will they let you and Daddy know exactly where I'll be?
Will they know up in heaven,
That I'm only seven?
And will God have time for me?
Can He play ball and ride a bike?
Will He know that my name is Mike?
And will He have time for me?
If I get scared will He light the light?
And listen to my prayers at night?
Will He get mad if I start to cry?
Does He have a house up in the sky?
And will He have time for me?
Will He tell me funny stories like Daddy always did?
Or will He be too busy to notice a little kid?
You can keep my wagon and my baseball glove,
Just in case you get another boy to love.
Oh, Mommie, there's an angel, come over here and see.
Would you please ask her, Mommie,
If God will have time for me?

We heard from our Nevada family Sunday evening, they were in Utah for a few days trying to cool off from the 100 plus temps in Las Vegas, Dane reports Cyd and Amber are fine except for the heat they have been experiencing...if everything goes well we plan on spending the weekend in T.C. with T.J., Stef and mom, John is on six days a week up in Calumet with Western Electric, it's much to far to come home for a day...

Have a nice weekend...the weather has been ideal, just so it continues...

The Avalanche—Your Want Ad Paper

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

A PROMISE OF LIFE AND PEACE

Suppose someone should offer to write you a policy which would assure you of both long life and peace. Would you be willing to pay the monthly premiums?? This proposition is clearly presented by God in the Bible for those who are interested: "My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments: For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee." Proverbs 3:1,2.

The first requirement is to become a "son" of God. This means you have acknowledged your sins before God, believed Jesus Christ died for your sins on the Cross of Calvary and arose to give you eternal life, and have personally put all your trust in Jesus Christ as your Savior and Lord.

The second requirement is: "forget not my law". One must first know God's law before he can forget it. Therefore we can state that retained knowledge of God's Word in the Bible is a second requirement to receive a long life and peace.

The third requirement is: "let thine heart keep my commandments." As the Psalmist said: "Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee." Psalm 119:11. When we hide God's word in our hearts it means we allow God's Word to become a part of our lives. We allow God's word to govern our attitudes and actions. What we think in our hearts, we really are: "For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he." Proverbs 23:7. What we think in our hearts we soon speak with our mouths: "for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." Matthew 12:34. It is from the heart men choose to carry out horrible sins: "For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: All these evil things come from within, and defile the man." Mark 7:21,22.

If you have never asked Jesus Christ to forgive you of your sins and to enter into your heart, it is a terrible place: "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings." Jeremiah 17:9,10.

You can receive the promise and blessings of long life and peace if you will trust Jesus Christ as your Savior and Lord, learn His Word, Remember His Word, and Obey His Word for the rest of your long and blessed life. What a wonderful and blessed promise God has given to you and me. (adv.)

Keep Cold

Ground beef should be thawed in the refrigerator. Keeping the meat cold while it's thawing is essential to prevent growth of bacteria.

Grayling's Hidden Places

by Michael Delp

We live here mostly because of the environment. We love the familiarity of walking through town and being recognized, or the prominence of having our names dropped occasionally in conversations. We like to attend parties, or sit in the local cafe and drink coffee. We like to read the paper every Wednesday morning, the smell of fresh ink still rising out of the pages.

We show a great need for this kind of habitual living and these forms of security. There are places in town we have defined as the places to be and the places where we may see and also be seen. Escape is sometimes difficult and often requires a major trek into the woods. Once to your hiding place, you may find yourself over-run by people with snapshot cameras, fishing equipment or hunting gear. Yet, there are a few places left in town where you may while away a few hours without risk of being bothered.

I present these places to you only as a form of enlightenment. They are close, sometimes hard to crawl into and sometimes a bit noisy. But they all share the same advantage—they offer a chance to simply remove yourself from contact for a portion of busy days, or days when you just need to feel like your soul must undergo recharging.

The photographs will remain unidentified. One mark of exploring which still keeps it in the realm of true mystery is not to reveal the place you have been. It is a form of recreation to show your friends sets of pictures depicting lost, overgrown places which exude intrigue and not tell them where they were taken.

Finding a hidden place to photograph and spend some time in is difficult. The moment someone else sees it they will invariably ask, "Jees, where's this place?" Then, you go mum, and watch their faces as they imagine themselves in these places. How many times, I too, have wanted to crawl into the tangled photographs taken by some now dead, hermit-photographer and never return, but had no inkling as to where the photo was taken.

For the sheer sport of it I will offer these simple directions in case you find yourself with a few free hours: buy a draftsman's compass, the kind with a point on one end and a pencil clipped in the other; the kind you draw circles with. Locate a map of Grayling and stick the pointed end in the middle of town. Open the legs of the compass until you think you have about a ¼ mile of linear measure and draw a circle. Somewhere inside there are these places.

If you can make your way through the tangle you have earned the joy of a long afternoon of cloud watching or river-fishing. Maybe you just want to sit and watch the town; you may want to sit and watch for people going into the right places at the right times. But the greatest pleasure of all will be watching town while your friends spend all afternoon walking Michigan Avenue looking for you.

Vets' Note

The Marine Corps League will have it's Field Service Officer Robert R. Boyle, at the Courthouse in Grayling, on September 17, 1980 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

He will assist veterans, widows of deceased veterans, and their dependents in filing claims with the Veterans Administration, Detroit, Michigan.

T.C.O.L.E.P. News

Despite warnings from the dark clouds of terrible storms approaching on Friday and Saturday, August 29-30, the T.C.O.L.E.P. Yard Sale was still a success. Surprisingly, we exceeded our anticipated goal even though we didn't receive as many customers as we had expected.

The sales success was mainly due to all those who contributed to the project. Donations given by many townspeople and businesses including Mrs. Martha Austin, Mrs. Lillian Kitchen, Mr. Bernard Maurer, Reverend and Mrs. Paul Weber and Al's Shirt Shop. Several other businesses, churches, and departments donated their services to the sale. They included Grayling Rental Center, The Homestead House, Georgia-Pacific Corp., Mount Hope Lutheran Church and the Crawford County Road Commission. We would like to express our appreciation to each of these and those individuals who helped us with the sale, Mitch Linendoll, Mary Robideau and a few program participants parents. Appreciation also goes to all those who bought items at our sale and helped our cause.

Marriage Announced

Judi Cass (formerly of Grayling) and Jay D'Alessandro of Clarkston announce their marriage on August 16, 1980. Judi is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Benjamin of Walled Lake and Jay is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony D'Alessandro of Medway, Mass. Judi is the maternal granddaughter of Mrs. W.E. Simpson of Grayling and the paternal granddaughter of Mr. Arvie Cox of Frederic.

The couple exchanged vows before the Honorable Robert Anderson in the historical building which formerly housed the Waterford Community Church in Waterford, Michigan.

Judi chose a caped gown of ivory and lace and carried a single rose. Sister of the bride, Ann LaMotte of Grayling, served as matron of honor while the bride's daughter, Stephanie Cass, served as flower girl. Both wore gowns of blue styled exactly as the bride's. Rick Rosegarr of Waterford served as best man.

Out of town guests included Della Simpson, The Tommy LaMottes, and Chum and Barb Lovely, all of Grayling. Also present were the bride's aunt, Joan Murphy, her daughter, Mary Beth, both of Rosecommon and Scott Hale of Grayling. Out of state guests included friends from Massachusetts, Montana, Missouri, and Florida.

Following a reception held at Roma's Inc. in Bloomfield Hills, the couple flew to Ft. Meyers Beach, Florida for their honeymoon. Judi and Jay will make their home in Clarkston.

Volunteers Starting Ninth Year

The Volunteer Aide Program is starting its ninth year in the Crawford AuSable Schools. We need your involvement to make the program a success again this year. Some of you who volunteered your time were not called upon to help last year, but this year there is an increased need for volunteers.

There are many things a volunteer can help with: Assisting the classroom teacher by helping individual children, correcting papers, bulletin boards, etc. Helping the remedial reading teacher on a one to one basis with children, etc. Library aides are needed to mend books, arrange shelves, sort materials, etc. Especially busy day aides for school pictures, vision and hearing tests, etc. Lunchroom aides are needed for one hour daily to help the lunch hour run more smoothly, help seat children, open milk cartons, etc. Playground aides are needed for one hour daily to help supervise the playground. Special materials aides to make posters and do small art projects.

If you enjoy working with children and have an interest in their education—we need you.

The amount of time you spend volunteering is up to you. You may help out on a weekly basis with one or more students or come to help on an especially busy day or help supervise the lunchroom or playground when you have the time.

Become involved today. For more information about the program or to sign up call: Cheryl LaDuke at 348-7641 ext. 52.

Corn Roast Well Attended

The Second Annual Jaycees Cornroast was held on August 31st at the Enlisted Persons Club at Camp Grayling. It was a huge success despite some rain.

The Jaycees would like to express their appreciation to the folks who enjoyed the food, drink and company and helped us raise $200.00 for the Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Telethon.

Also, the Jaycees are grateful to Dan & Maggie's Arrow and Mill-Town Traders for use of their portable signs to publicize the event.

4-H Program Needs Help

4-H is here in Crawford County and working hard in many projects, but more leaders are needed. If you are 18 years or older, have a hobby and would like to share this hobby with the youth please call the Cooperative Extension Service, 4-H Youth Programs at 348-5123.

There are so many areas 4-H can cover, such as hunting, fishing, skiing, ice skating, wildlife, clowning, child care, first aid, radio, cars, small engines, model airplanes, or cooking. The list is endless and through Michigan State University we can supply you with information in almost any field.

The youth in our area need adult leadership in "learning by doing" clubs. 4-H develops self assurance through personal growth and self awareness; helps youth relate to others by learning to live and communicate with each other in a complex world; and 4-H develops leadership by helping others and taking on responsibilities.

New Instant Lottery Game

On Tuesday, September 9, 1980, the Michigan Lottery will "kickoff" its newest instant game, "Michigan Football." Their goal is to award over $13 million in cash prizes.

"Michigan Football" tickets sell for $1 each and entitle the player to four exciting quarters of football fun and a chance to instantly win up to $5,000. There is no half-time ceremony, but the Grand Prize of "$1,000 a Week for Life" (with a $1 million minimum) should be enough to hold everyone's interest.

The tickets consist of four spots, or quarters, marked "Their Score," and four quarters marked "Your Score." Under each of the playing quarters (spots) is a number from zero to nine. If the player's total score (the sum of "Your Score" for all four quarters) is greater than the opponent's score (the sum of "Their Score" for all four quarters), the player wins the prize shown in the game instructions on the face of the ticket. If the player's score ties with "Their Score," the player wins a "free ticket," for another chance to play for "free." Over 34 million "Michigan Football" tickets will be distributed throughout the state. The odds of purchasing a winning ticket in this game are approximately one in four (1:3.6).

*Each $100 winner who files a prize claim up to 10 days after the announced end of the game qualifies for the elimination drawing. At the elimination drawing ten finalists will be drawn, at random, to advance to the Grand Drawing, where they will compete for the following prizes: 1st (Grand) Prize $1,000 a week for life ($1 million minimum); 2nd Prize $50,000; 3rd Prize $40,000; 4th Prize $35,000; 5th Prize $30,000; 6th Prize $25,000; 7th Prize $20,000; 8th Prize $15,000; 9th Prize $10,000; 10th Prize $5,000.

Lottery agents will redeem "Free Tickets," $2, $5 and $25 winners. "Michigan Football" is the first instant game where winners can redeem $25 winners at any agent location rather than filing a claim at a Lottery Claim Center. Tickets winning $100 or $1,000 may be claimed at a Lottery Claim Center, a Lottery Regional Office, or Lottery Central in Lansing. Players who win $5,000 should file their claim at a Lottery Regional Office or Lottery Central. Lottery Claim Centers are available in most Michigan cities and towns. Lottery agents can inform inquiries of the closest Claim Center location. The Central and Regional lottery offices are located as follows:

Grayling-County Building, Lansing-6545 Mercantile Way, Marquette-105 East Washington, Oak Park-13391 West Nine Mile, Portage (Kalamazoo)-5232 Portage Road, Saginaw-310 Johnson (Downtown Saginaw Mall).

Instant winners who file claims for $100 or more will be paid by check once their Lottery Claim has been validated and approved for payment. The prize check will be mailed to the address provided by the winner on the claim form.

Grand Drawing winners will be paid in full immediately following the Grand Drawing, with the exception of the Grand Prize, which will be paid in installments. The date, time and location of the elimination drawing and the Grand Drawing will be announced after the end of the game.

Quotable quotes corralled

RICHARD MILLIMAN

Now that the Democrat national convention is safely over, I find myself with a collection of catchy, significant, interesting or provocative quotations from various sources, or some which just happened to strike my personal fancy. It seems a shame to waste them (as the quotation goes, "waste not, want not"), so here they are:

From venerable columnist Vermont Royster: "Mr. Carter, mistake not, is a formidable campaigner, as Senator Kennedy found out. He's tightly self-controlled and his quiet speaking manner is well adapted to the 'cool' medium of television. In that press conference about Brother Billy, he showed he can put on a virtuoso performance when hard pressed. Whatever else Jimmy Carter is, he's neither quitter nor pushover."

From another columnist, Norman C. Miller: "The Democrats' main hope is that Mr. Reagan will make enough blunders that they can successfully attack him as simplistic and reckless. That could happen. If it does, the Democrats could wind up holding the White House once again despite their basic divisions and Jimmy Carter's inept record. But the Democrats' split on great issues would remain in any case. Neither this convention nor the campaign is likely to help restore the Democrats' lost consensus. It may take several years—and the loss of elections—before the Democrats can develop new leaders and sort out a new consensus."

From an editorial in the Wall Street Journal: "By now almost no one sees the President as a superior manager. Events of this convention week seem to cast some doubt that he can manage a political convention even with a 600 vote margin. The candidate he beat has stolen the show, and the platform with it, forcing the President to send an excuse to the teacher for disagreeing."

On the rules fight, Washington Post columnist David Broder wrote: "There may be worse times and places to debate the rules and procedures of a political party than on the floor of a national convention preoccupied with a fight over a presidential nomination. But they do not come to mind. Somehow, in such circumstances, the position that delegates take always seems to coincide with the interests of the candidate they are supporting."

In reporting the opening day of the convention, the Wall Street Journal news story concluded like this: "An indication of how far these Democrats have to go to win the American people's admiration was registered at Yankee Stadium when the baseball fans were asked to give a warm welcome to Democratic delegates attending the game. The fans reported with a traditional Bronx cheer."

A convention follower who calls herself Betty Boop and claims she is an independent candidate for president was quoted in New York: "If you've been to both conventions you can see the difference between Democrats and Republicans. The Republicans look like doberman pinchers in suits, and the Democrats look like cocker spaniels in blue jeans."

In an article headlined "Whither the Democrats?" Marvin Stone, editor of U.S. News and World Report, wrote: "No matter how many vows of unity emerge from the convention, an engrossing question will remain: Can the Democratic Party ever be the same again? Chasms developed over the past few months look bridgeable only by ropes. A basic poverty, not only of cohesion but of future leadership as well, has been exposed. Ideologically the dump-Carter drive was referred to as a liberal move, but in fact some rebels would take a conservative label. Moreover, so far as liberalism is concerned, specialist on voting trends now are voicing a conviction that, after 40 years of vigor, liberalism has reached its peak and is headed down. One demographer suggests that pro-labor and pro-farmer liberals of past years have been replaced with special interest activist—pro-abortion, pro-gay and pro-whale."

Detroit News Reporter Richard Willing, as the convention broke up, summarized his view: "Democrats convened in New York a party divided. They left town a party confused."

For Hugh Sidey, an expert on the presidency, came these comments: "The convention was not a giant pre-packaged soap opera as some of the more severe critics would have it. But the convention finally was the creature of the new and permanent force of practicing political technocrats. They, of course, are the campaign consultants, the speech writers, the pollsters, the political science professors, and even a few elected officials who seized on the imperfections of the previous selection process. In their zeal to produce a textbook model of balance and beauty, someplace along the way to reality they forgot to put in meaning and spirit."

And finally, a conclusion from television curmudgeon Andy Rooney: "I'm tired of all the talk about how tired people are of politics. The election campaign ahead looks fascinating to me, and the debates between the candidates can only be good for the country."

Low Grade

One student enrolled for the fall term. He spent most of the time at football games and in the beer bars. When he didn't pass one course, he complained vehemently to his instructor, claiming he really didn't deserve an F.

"Actually I don't think you deserve an F either," replied the professor, "but unfortunately it's the lowest grade I can give you."

An Open Letter Concerning AIS Home Development in Crawford Co.

The Community Mental Health Program was given an opportunity by the Department of Mental Health to actively participate in the development of several homes for handicapped persons. The Board chose to accept that opportunity because of a firm belief and conviction that this type of home development was highly worthwhile. Four of these homes, known as AIS homes, are in the process of development in Crawford County. The homes are designed to be the residence for persons with developmental disabilities.

The homes when constructed will be three or four bedroom ranch style residences with a barrier free design to allow for use by persons in wheelchairs. Because the developmentally disabled people who will live in these homes have many needs, each home will be staffed on a 24-hour a day, 7 day a week basis. A professional team will work with each home to ensure that not only the basic needs of residents are met, but opportunities for growth and development are also provided. Each home will have no more than six residents.

The people who have the opportunity to live in an AIS home will benefit tremendously simply by having the opportunity to live in the atmosphere of a family size home. They will also participate in service programs of the school or Community Mental Health. It is our hope that the residents will also become an accepted part of the community and neighborhood in which they live as this will also enhance the quality of their life.

I am asking your support of this home development project through this letter.

If you live in a neighborhood in which an AIS site is located, you are welcome to become a member of a neighborhood advisory committee which will be established when the home is constructed.

Each home will also employ approximately eight people from the community. It is our desire to employ persons who live close to the home when possible. If you or a member of your family might be interested in this type of employment, you should express your interest when recruiting of staff is initiated.

Finally, as residents become settled into their home, you have an open invitation to stop by and visit as you might with any new neighbor.

If you have any questions or wish to discuss further any of the information presented in this open letter, please contact me. You may call me collect in Cadillac (616-775-3463) or go through my secretary in Grayling (348-8522). If I am not immediately available, I will get back to you as quickly as possible.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
Anton P. Colasacco, M.A.

Strolling

Around Town

by Fay Boyer

Time now limits my strolls, but I am still issuing a warning to all walkers that cross the bridge on State and Maple. Keep on the sidewalk as much as possible for another car ran off the road a couple of weeks ago in the same spot. I had a long talk with the city manager over the situation!

Mrs. Mangsen out on Roberts Road has some beautiful gladiolus if you are strolling or bicycling. Cars are not for seeing the beauty of things. The Davis' on Madsen Street have seeded grass on the new curbside and Caron Apartments are putting in new sidewalks.

George Bielski on State is leveling off the yard where a house once stood.

The City Park has some new litter bins and would you believe, it took only ONE day for some of our locals to twist them off!! It's discouraging when so many of you out there are trying so hard to make this a better place.

The A & P Store received a new coat of paint some time ago and I have to thank Tom Brogger again this year for keeping the grass out and trimmed all along the railroad track and along the highway as well as the litter picked up out there. It really has improved the appearance of that end of town.

Now, let's get the rest of the weeds down before winter sets in and we don't have to look at them in the spring!

Grayling Elementary School News

Tuesday night was horrible, nothing went right from our TV going on the fritze to the alarm going off at 2:00 a.m. but the next day was just the opposite. It was super. My teacher was very nice and all the kids were friendly. Written by Mark Brookshire, fifth grade

Coming to school on Wednesday was exciting. We did all sorts of things. The best part about it was seeing who was going to be in my class and what the teacher was going to be like. I haven't quite gotten used to everyone yet. But I've got lots of friends and that's what counts. Written by Heather Watts, fifth grade

Smock Archery 5th in State Tourney

by Rob Smock

Smock Archery softball team traveled to Muskegon over Labor Day weekend to play in the Class C State Finals. The tournament consisted of Regional District winners from throughout Michigan.

In the opening round of tournament play, Smock Archery met Port Hole Tavern of Muskegon, taking a convincing win of 11 to 7. Mark Golinick hit 2 home runs and had 4 RBI's as Dale Papendick played an outstanding third base. Steve Weaver was the winning pitcher.

Second round action pitted Smock's against the 1979 Class D State Champs, Ostenoiski Realty of Bay City. Ostenoiski Realty, somewhat overconfident, took one on the chin as Smock Archery stayed on top 6 to 3. Tournament Boogie King Ron Metzger, having won a dance contest the night before in Muskegon, took another win as pitcher, contributing three hits and 2 RBI's as well. Darrell Metzger, Bob Smock, Terry Rankin and Craig Hinkle each added two hits apiece.

After a brief rain delay on Sunday afternoon, play resumed with Smock's, one of just four undefeated teams in the tournament. Excited, confident, and with an excellent shot at the semi-finals, Smock Archery met Outdoor World of Kalamazoo. In the third inning with Smock's on top 4 to 2, poor and untimely defensive play began to cost the Grayling team precious runs as Outdoor World took the lead 5 to 4. Smock's went back on top the following inning, only to fall behind again 9 to 6 in the fifth inning. When it was all done and said, or maybe unsaid—Smock Archery lost 9 to 7. Outdoor World never scored an earned run. Bob Smock had three hits and 2 RBI's as Steve Weaver took a tough loss.

Dusted, but determined, Smock's met Warners of Durant Sunday night under the lights. Trailing 4 to 1 after one inning of play Smock's caught fire behind the hot defensive play of shortstop Jim Tobin and regained the lead 7 to 4 going into the seventh inning. Smock's did not score in the top of the seventh, bringing the trailing Durant team to the plate to finish out the contest. As if awoken from a dream to observe a nightmare, Warner's collected five straight hits and scored four runs to win 8 to 7. Terry Rankin had three hits as Tobin, Houlton, Burkett and Ron Metzger each contributed two hits. Metzger took the loss.

In finishing fifth place, Smock Archery draws to a close a memorable summer of softball. Following is a list of the team players: Dale Papendick, Steve Houlton, Jim Tobin, Bruce Burkett, Mark Golinick, Bob Smock, Craig Hinkle, Will Roach, Terry Rankin, Darrell Metzger, Steve Weaver, Ron Metzger, Jack Noirot, Bert Kaiser, Tim Jones, Joe Thomson and Wayne Metzger.

Third baseman Dale Papendick seemed to sum our season up best using Teddy Roosevelt's words "Far better it is to dare mighty things, to win glorious triumphs, even though checked by failure, than to take rank with those poor spirits who neither enjoy much nor suffer much, because they live in the great twilight that knows neither victory nor defeat."

The biggest factory ever to cross the sea was a power plant that is two and a half football fields long and 20 stories high. Built on a bargelike hull, it was towed 15,500 miles from Japan to Brazil because it was too large to squeeze through the Panama Canal. It was assembled in Japan because that was less costly and time-consuming than building it in the Amazon jungle.

The Ladies Circle meets again on the second Thursday evening. They had received a hand-crocheted tablecloth from Mrs. Algot Johnson, to be used for a summer project. Leo Jorgenson was recipient of this item.
Choir practice will continue on every Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. at the Church. We were privileged to hear 3 guest speakers while Rev. Haskel was on vacation. They were Rev. Ducks Unlimited Banquet Planned

The newly formed Manistee River Chapter of Ducks Unlimited has announced plans for their first annual membership banquet. The date is September 23, 1980, and the location is at the Manistee Lake Lounge, which overlooks beautiful Manistee Lake on County Road 612. Registration and Cocktails start at 6 p.m.
Ducks Unlimited is a non-profit membership organization of over 250,000 members, dedicated to the conservation of waterfowl as a valuable natural resource. Funds raised in the U.S. and Canada through tax-deductible membership contributions are utilized to construct and rehabilitate waterfowl nesting habitat north of the U.S./Canada border, where 4 out of every 5 ducks and geese are hatched. Hundreds of species of wildlife including fish, furbearers and other mammals call D.U. water control projects their home. Over its 40-year history, D.U. has spent over 68 million dollars—and has created or stabilized over 2.6 million acres of valuable habitat.

A one-year membership to Ducks Unlimited and a superb prime rib dinner will be covered by the $25 donation. The banquet will feature a carefully selected list of door prizes and raffle items, as well as a nice group of limited-edition wildlife art prints, all custom framed.
Neil Rockey is the chairman of this new Manistee River Chapter. Other local committee members are: treasurer, Al Jordan; arrangements, Don Lance; publicity, Rod Lawrence; auction & prizes, Ed Norman; tickets, Robbie Dunn. Interested sportsmen or conservationists who would like more information or tickets, should contact Neil Rockey in Kalkaska at 258-2926, or Ed Norman in Williamsburg at 267-5123. The committee members are encouraging area businesses and their communities to help support this banquet for such a worthy cause, be sure and get in on the fun!

Re: Application for AIS Home Development, Sherwood Forest No. 2 Subdivision, Red Wing Terrace Subdivision, and Clough's Highland Acres Subdivision, Grayling Township, Crawford County, Michigan
Dear Mr. Colasacco:

I have been contacted by several residents of Sherwood Forest Subdivision, Red Wing Terrace Sub., and Clough's Highland Acres Subdivision, regarding the Notice from Grayling Township that the North Central Michigan Mental Health Services intends to construct Child Caring Institutions in each of those subdivisions. It is my understanding that these facilities will care for six or less persons under 24-hour supervision, and that there will be a supervisory staff on the premises.

The residents of each of the above-referenced subdivisions that have contacted me have expressed their disapproval of the proposed plans.

In the case of Sherwood Forest No. 2 Subdivision and Senior Citizen

Homemaker Service

We are receiving the loveliest letters from our clients commending our Homemaker Services. We are all so pleased and proud that our program is so well appreciated. This is all so gratifying, we would love to be able to do more. We would also like to thank all of the very thoughtful people for their donations and beautiful letters. They are very much appreciated and needed.

We have been in operation for over a year now and our program is becoming more and more familiar to the citizens of Crawford County. I have had the pleasure of being your Homemaker Coordinator for over 7 months now and I have had some of the most rewarding experiences of my life. You Senior Citizens are truly beautiful people. We are now doing services for 41 wonderful people. We have a total of 2277 units of service to this date.

Did you know that seventy-five percent of Americans living today will reach age 65 (compared to 40% in 1900). This is important because per capita expenditures for personal health care services increase sharply with age.

Goals of Homemaker Services are to provide an alternative to institutional care (Nursing Home or Foster Care); to allow for shorter hospital stays or to remain at home in the event of illness or accident; to reduce isolation; to encourage family care whenever possible; and to provide a link with other community services to better enable the client to maintain independence. But the time has come, that unless we have your donations the program will not be able to continue to serve everyone.

Again, if you, or if you know of someone who needs our Homemaker Services Please call the Senior Citizen Center (348-9314) for more information. Better yet come in and see us. We would love to meet you. You are welcome anytime.

Joyce Hankins
Homemaker Coordinator

District Court

The following people appeared before Judge Francis L. Walsh in 83rd District Court last week:

William Roy Bloomfield, 18, Grayling, pled guilty to a charge of Disorderly person under Grayling City Ordinance No. 4 and was fined $45.00 or 5 days.

Richard Brage Fisher, 25, East Detroit, demanded a preliminary examination on the charge of Resist, Oppose, Beat or Wounding an Officer. The 12 day period was waived and a $1,000 cash/surety bond was set.

George Robert Cooper, 22, Grayling, demanded a preliminary examination on the charge of Receiving and concealing stolen property of a value over $100.00. The 12 day period was waived and a $1,000 cash/surety bond was set.

Beverly Kay Nicolaisen, 27, Grayling, demanded a preliminary examination on the charge of Larceny in a building. The 12 day period was waived and a $500 cash/surety bond was set.

Robert Lee Connin, 45, Manitou Beach, pled guilty to the charge of Impaired Driving and was fined $25 or 14 days.

Red Wing Terrace Subdivision, the property owners have indicated that the proposed AIS facilities would controvert the restrictive covenants applicable to each of those subdivisions. I attach for your benefit and perusal a copy of the Restrictive Covenants of Sherwood Forest No. 2 Subdivision, and of Red Wing Terrace Subdivision.

As you know, similar objections by property owners faced with similar circumstances have reached the Court of Appeals of this State, and have been decided. Those cases are: Bellarmine Hills Association v. Residential Systems Company, (1978) 84 Mich App 554, and Jayno Heights Landowners Association v. Preston, (1978) 85 Mich App 443. In the Jayne case, the Court found that the State could not contravene private restrictive covenants as opposed to governmental zoning ordinances, by placing a facility of the type that is being proposed in the instant case in a subdivision restricted to single-family dwellings. I believe the Jayno case to be the controlling case in this State at this time, and have so advised the property owners from Sherwood Forest No. 2 and Red Wing Terrace.

I understand that there are no restrictive covenants in the case of Clough's Highland Acres Sub. I did, however, attend the meeting at Mt. Hope Lutheran Church that you conducted last evening, and it was fairly apparent that the land owners present from Clough's Highland Acres are very concerned about the location of an AIS facility in that subdivision, as a result of its proximity to the river and the number of private swimming pools located in that subdivision. My general impression from the meeting was that the residents of Clough's Highland Acres Sub. present on that occasion were deeply opposed to the location of an AIS facility in that subdivision, for these reasons, and other reasons that may not have been expressed prior to the time that I was required to leave the meeting.

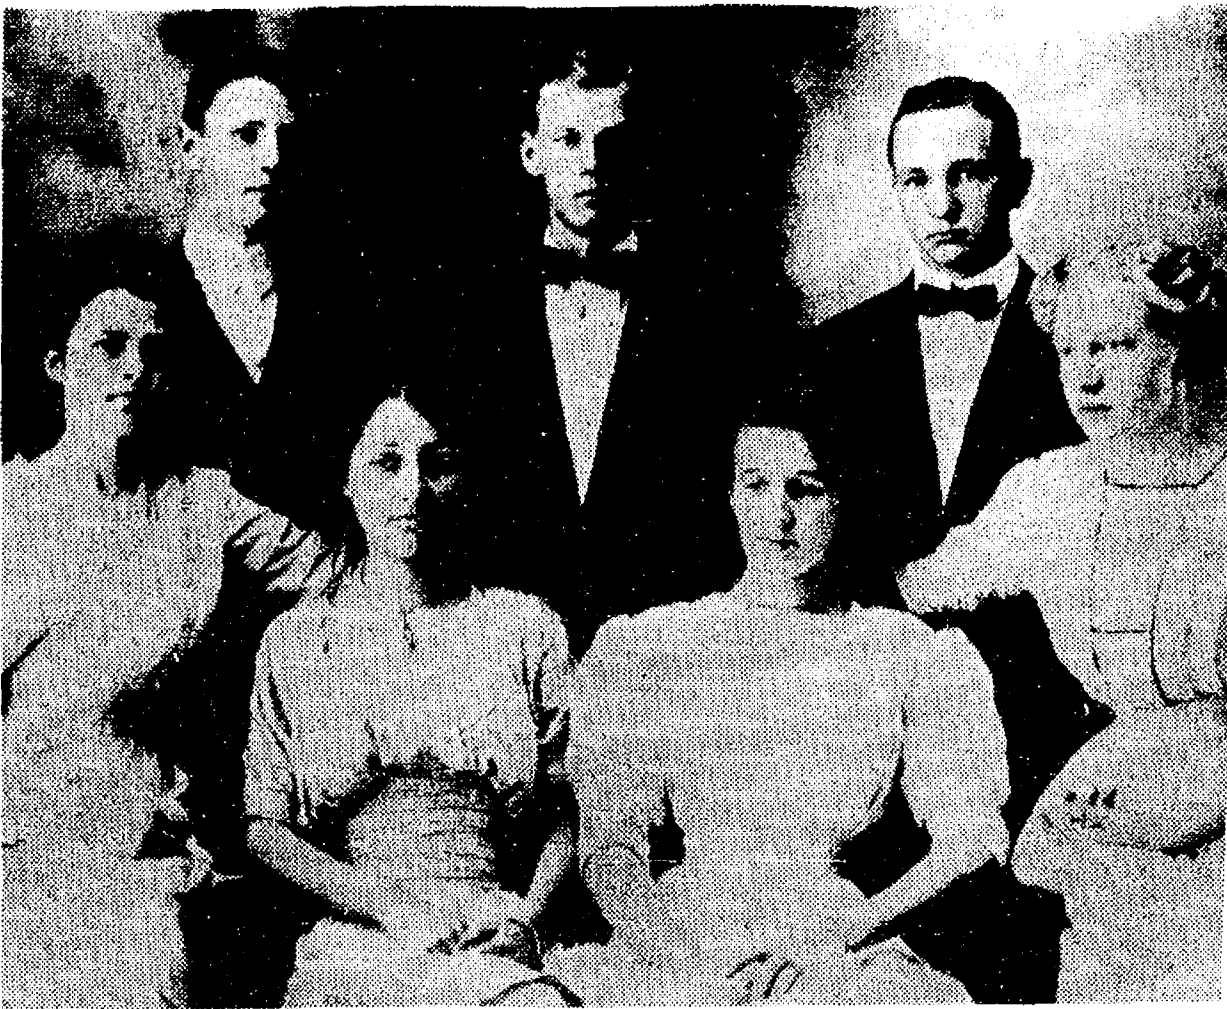

I have also had the opportunity to discuss this matter with the Grayling Township Supervisor, and during the course of a very informal discussion, he informed me that at one time, when he was involved in the site selection process, at the request of the State, that he was able to suggest several other sites, other than those presently proposed, where the AIS facilities could be placed without contravening private restrictive covenants, as would be the case in Sherwood Forest No. 2 and Red Wing Terrace, or incurring the opposition of the present land owners, which appears to be the case in Clough's Highland Acres.

As a result of the requests that I have received and my inquiry into the matter, I would appreciate it if you would treat this communication as a request that you give this matter further consideration and attempt to locate sites other than those presently proposed in the above-referenced subdivisions for placement of the AIS Child Caring Institutions. I do believe that there is a general consensus that the intent and purpose of the program is salutary and deserves support. I cannot help but think, however, that that support may well be lost in the shuffle by a forced introduction of the facility into a subdivision where the present property owners are deeply opposed to the idea for a number of valid reasons.

In the case of Sherwood Forest No. 2 and Red Wing Terrace, I believe that the restrictive covenants applicable to each of those subdivisions represent a serious legal impediment to the proposed AIS construction. I am inclined to be of assistance to the property owners in those subdivisions in asserting their legal rights, based upon the restrictive covenants, if that becomes necessary. In the case of all three subdivisions, it seems to me that it would be preferable if the parties involved in proposing the sites for construction of the proposed facilities could agree that other alternative sites which are equally suitable are available for the intended purpose.

Thank you for your kind attention to this communication. I would appreciate hearing from you once you have had the opportunity to fully review this matter.

Very truly yours,
Alton T. Davis &
Associates, P.C.

Farmers Home Administration Increases Limits For Above-Moderate Income Housing Guarantees:

"The Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) has raised the income limits for above-moderate-income rural home-ownership loan guarantees from $20,000 to $30,000 in the 48 contiguous states", Phillip Roberts, FmHA Director for Michigan, said today. In higher cost areas, the limit was raised to $50,000 for Alaska and $40,000 for Hawaii and Guam.

Since the above-moderate-income guaranteed housing program for rural areas was implemented by Farmers Home at the beginning of Fiscal Year 1979, only individuals and families with an adjusted income of between $15,600 (moderate-income ceiling) and $20,000 were eligible to participate in the Continental United States.

Under the program, Farmers Home guarantees repayment of up to 90 percent of loans made by commercial lenders for the construction of single-family dwellings in rural areas, including most towns of up to 20,000 population that are outside Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas (SMSA).

"Many people in the expanded income range are currently unable to obtain mortgage credit, which effectively prevents them from enjoying safe, decent, and adequate housing," Roberts said. "This increased financial assistance from Farmers Home will greatly enhance the quality of their lives."

By expanding the income eligibility, much more credit can be extended to the public, allowing more rural residents the benefit of homeownership, Roberts added.

The change became effective immediately in order to make this service available without delay, according to Roberts. Following publication in the Federal Register on June 20, comments will be accepted on the change for sixty days, then the action will be reviewed to incorporate any necessary revisions.

Farmers Home has indicated there is adequate financing for this program during Fiscal year 1980. (adv.)

Around the World With Steve Rison

EDITORS NOTE—This is part two in a five part series covering Steve Rison's Trip "Around the World".

Moving on from Hamburg, I attempted to hitch but the cold rainy North German weather dissuaded me and I opted for a comfortable train ride to Amsterdam, Holland. I had been here before but always enjoy going back because Amsterdam is a city enveloped with tradition, atmosphere and excitement. It is a cross road for travelers—especially Americans, and a great place to people watch. I stayed then in Haarlem, a pleasant old town close to Amsterdam, with Dutch friends I had met in Australia who had returned to Holland to live. It was especially nice to meander through old Haarlem along the canal and through the narrow streets and simply look around. Some of my cultural needs were satisfied by a visit to the Frans Hols Museum with its wealth of Renaissance art, followed by a visit to a contemporary photography exhibition in the town center.

A couple of days there, then a brief visit to a small country village, and on to Rotterdam, where my father was born, and where I returned to fine reunions with cousins I had last seen about 5 years ago. I spent the week in sightseeing, (the Hague nearby, the North Sea, the harbor) washing clothes, eating well and talking with my younger cousins about their first trip to America next year and convincing them of the fine hospitality available in Grayling.

From Holland it was on to Paris, France, the city of lights beautifully designed with gardens, palaces, cathedrals, monuments, an international population from all far reaches of the globe, yet to me, sometimes, much more lonely and isolating than the remote mountain villages in Sumatra. I spent a few days there mainly meandering around through the city, a contrast to my previous visits when I rushed from one museum or cathedral to another. There is, for sure, a wealth of cultural attractions to take advantage of but I felt that this time I wanted to try and appreciate the life of the city as well. I had a fine lunch one day near the Champs-Elysee with a friend of Gordon Farley's (from Grayling) then visited the George Pompidou Centre square for an enjoyable afternoon of being entertained by street musicians, magicians, and mimic artists. I was invited to share some bread and wine and for awhile lost my anonymity to an interesting and friendly group of folks which included English, Danish, French, German, Irish and Algerians.

I later moved on through central France to Grenoble in the French Alps then hitched to Geneva, Switzerland, the ride especially enjoyable both for the beautiful country we passed through as well as for the opportunity I was afforded to practice my miserably broken but apparently basically understandable French.

Switzerland is terribly expensive these days and as the weather was rather rainy and miserable I only stayed in Luzern one night, called a couple friends, and decided to move rather quickly towards Austria.

Arriving in Innsbruck, I first attempted to contact Josef, a friend I had met in Bali, Indonesia, who invited me to visit his farm in the Zillestall Valley some miles to the southeast. I proceeded to the village of Zell and although I wasn't able to contact Josef by phone, I figured I could simply make inquiries when I got to the town. After getting off the bus I walked into a small corner grocery and asked where this farm might be located. A man who knew of the family immediately directed me outside raised his arm high into the air and pointed to a roof sitting high on the mountain and said "it is there". Needless to say, it wasn't what I was expecting in terms of a farm and I was abt bewildered and perplexed not particularly savoring a long hike up the mountain with my pack fully loaded. However, I lucked out, and was told there was a cable car operating that I could take to a higher point on the mountain and hike down. So by cable car I slowly swung my way up the mountain later connecting with the cable car operator who offered to drive me down to the farm on his way to the village.

Road Commission Minutes

August 22, 1980

A regular meeting of the Crawford County Road Commission was held in their office in Grayling, Michigan. Chairman Richter presiding. Present were: Chairman Ervin Richter, Commissioners Gloria Kraus and Grover Cason, Engineer-Manager John Keir, and Secretary Lorna Bernard.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read. Commissioner Cason made a motion to accept the minutes with corrections, seconded by Commissioner Kraus. All voted in favor, motion carried.

Vouchers Number 548 through 550 were submitted to the Board for payment. Chairman Richter made a motion to accept the vouchers for payment, seconded by Commissioner Cason. All voted in favor, vouchers signed.

The contract between the Engineer-Manager and the Crawford County Road Commission was signed at this time. The contract is an agreement for two years and was effective as of August 4, 1980.

Four permits were submitted to the Board for approval. The Board approved the following:

Sun Production to bury 4" gas transmission line on Dort Road. General Telephone-bury cable along south side of Smith Bridge Road.

General Telephone-bury cable along east of Damon Truck Trail and bore under North Down River Road.

Driveway permit—Lincoln Park Boulevard. Engineer-Manager Keir reported to the Board that specific OSHA regulations are required for heavy equipment licenses. He was instructed to make arrangements for the testing.

The Board recessed for lunch and upon returning to the office, convened their meeting with a discussion on Beasley Avenue. Engineer-Manager Keir reported the cost of minimal improvements. The Board instructed him to send a letter to the supervisor of Beaver Creek Township regarding the cost to upgrade the road.

Engineer-Manager Keir discussed with the Board the use of plastic driveway culverts in the county. The Board decided that they would not be acceptable in this county at this time.

Engineer-Manager Keir presented pictures of the Pollak Bridge to the Board. The Board informed Mr. Keir to repair the major deficiencies and to post the bridge for weight if applicable until funds become available for replacement.

The agreements for road improvements in Frederic Township were reviewed. The Board's commitment and allocation for 1980 can be used this year or 1981. However, at this time, no additional amount is budgeted for 1981.

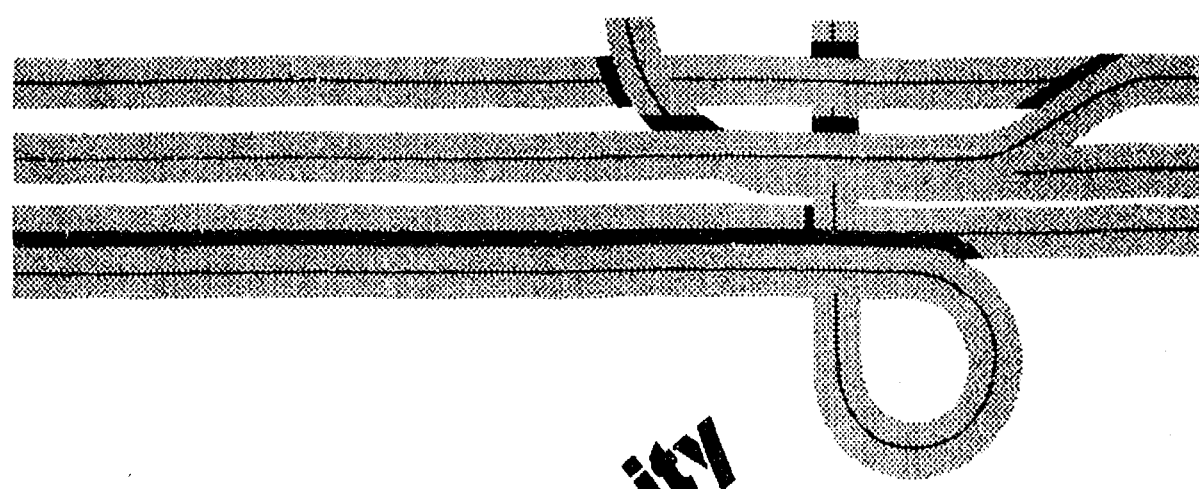

Engineer-Manager Keir reported to the Board that "Stop" signs have been placed at the following intersections.

Think Safety...
...Think Christianity

We can't miss them — these signs along the intersections of our streets. They protect our school children from physical harm. We see the sign... and slow down.

Most of us are deeply concerned about the safety of our youngsters... and these signs can be a reminder of a further obligation our society has to its youth. There are dangers in life for which only religious training and faith can prepare us.

Boys and girls approaching maturity deserve the spiritual protection which Christian education provides.

Whenever you approach a school crossing, slow down! But, just don't think safety — think CHRISTIANITY.

National Cystic Fibrosis Week

• Cystic Fibrosis is the number one genetic killer of children and young adults in the United States;

• Every day, every five hours, a child is born with CF;

• Every day, every eight hours, someone dies from CF;

• At present, there is no cure or long-term control for CF;

• The defective gene that causes CF is transmitted to the CF child by both parents, neither of whom shows any symptoms of the disease;

• An estimated 10 million people—one out of every 20 Americans—are symptom-free, currently undetectable, carriers of the CF gene;

• CF, a disease involving the lungs and digestive system, is often misdiagnosed, delaying treatment which can prolong life.

For more information about Cystic Fibrosis, contact: Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Greater Michigan Chapter, P.O. Box 6005, 6370 Normandy Drive, Saginaw, Michigan 48608, 517-793-8383.
